My dear Mr. Mirza-
M-Ismail

Kindly accept my thanks for your kind letter of 25th inst. Kindly assure His Highness that I have the highest respect, nay, the highest veneration for the numerous princely virtues, of which His Highness is an embodiment. It is my solicitude to approbation. I have several times asked him to give personal hints to me about my policy when I cannot see him. I hope he will kindly bear this in mind and be my friend, philosopher and guide.

Yours sincerely
M. Venkata Krishnayya

see That his Hilhness' benevolent rule meets with the approbation of all his Hilhness' loyal and righteous subjects that dictates the policy in my writings and speeches. I have likeiy adopted the policy of reading my written speeches so that I may not run the risk of being misrepresented. Still I see that I am terribly misrepresented. Owing to pressure of business some silly, stupid and objectionable extracts and letters got into my papers. I [illegible] that nothing objectionable appears in them in future. I have one or two things to talk to you in person. Kindly let me know when I can see you. In the meantime kindly assure His Hilhness that I look upon it as my sacred duty to do everything calculated to promote the benevolent rule of His Hilhness and to avoid everything calculated to pine His Hilhness the least ground for dis
